Discrepancies in acceptance into Allegro Magazine

There are 3 types of discrepancy fees:

- qualitative (products not indicated in notice) - fee for each product sent to the Allegro Warehouse that is inconsistent with notice (e.g. seller declared that he would send 1 flowerpot, but delivered 1 pen)
- quantitative (surplus) - fee for each piece of product over the number units of a given product given in notice . We do not charge for deficiencies.
- regulatory - fee for each item of products not compliant with the service regulations sent to the Allegro Warehouse (in particular non-compliance in terms of: permissible dimensions and weight, products with an expiry date of less than 120 days, no scannable GTIN (EAN) code on products (in accordance with point I 7. e) of this regulation)
